Worldtek Travel Management is a full-service travel management company specializing in corporate, collegiate and leisure travel needs and meeting planning. While Worldtek's head office is in New Haven, Connecticut, the San Diego division just joined the Rancho Bernardo Courtyard community in August of 2009. This local office manages the event planning for the company's corporate clients.

The San Diego branch is headed by Renée Jacobs, Vice President, Meetings & Events. Renee has over 17 years of experience in the meeting planning industry managing exhibitions, conferences and incentive travel.

Joining Renée in this office is Christina Başkaya, Manager, Meetings & Events.

Christina's background is in marketing with five years in the meeting planning industry.

Both Renée and Christina conduct a lot of their business on the road, as most of the events they produce take them to locations in Europe, Asia, Africa, South America or elsewhere in the US and Canada.
